Duke welcomes you

1987

Class of 1987

You are now part of a proud heritage of students who have had the opportunity to attend Duke University. These next few years will prove to be the most enjoyable years of your life. The friends that you make at Duke will be a large part of that enjoyment, both now and in the future.

The Duke Alumni Association has prepared this class directory to help you match names with faces, to help make your initial days more enjoyable as you begin to meet those new friends.

On behalf of all Duke alumni, congratulations on becoming a part of this proud University. After two semesters, you will automatically become a member of the General Alumni Association. We look forward to your participation in the future.

Richard Maxwell BSCE'55
President, General Alumni Association
Greensboro, North Carolina

The Duke University General Alumni Association has a membership of more than 60,000 alumni. Association members are persons who have completed at least two semesters of work toward a Duke degree, commencing when their class receives degrees or diplomas.

The purposes of the Association include the uniting of its members in fellowship and, together with the faculty, students, administration, and other interested persons, helping Duke fulfill its educational and humanitarian goals. The Office of Alumni Affairs is responsible for programs designed to fulfill these purposes. The relationship of university and alumni goes beyond the time a student actually spends on campus—each continues to influence the other in terms of growth, recognition and attainment of goals.

Alumni Affairs is greatly involved in two categories of student-related activities: (1) those under the auspices of the Board of Directors of the General Alumni Association and financed through their dues program and (2) those under the auspices of the Student-Alumni Relations Committee (SARC), a standing committee of the Associated Students of Duke University (ASDU). SARC has the responsibility for organizing and supervising three separate sub-committees: the Alumni Summer Jobs Program, the Duke Network, and the Conference on Career Choices. These programs are designed to work extensively with alumni in an effort to develop a lasting relationship between former and present Duke students.

We hope you will become knowledgeable about and involved in the activities of SARC.

Alumni Affairs employs a senior staff of nine and a support staff of seven to coordinate and execute a varied program for its alumni and to assist in student-related activities.

Besides welcoming the Class of 1987 to Alumni House during orientation, we encourage you to visit us frequently and to call on us when we can be of assistance.

M. Laney Funderburk, Jr. '60
Director, Alumni Affairs

Aspirations toward excellence

Being a native Southerner, although a reconstructed one, I have grown during my more than twenty-five years at Duke University to be keenly interested in and attracted by a special quality that I find in Duke's history and in the University today. It is not easy, especially for a long-winded professorial type, to explain in a few words. But it has to do with the fact that Duke is where it is—in North Carolina and the South—and the kind of institution that Duke has been and is.

In the first place, North Carolina has always been in some ways both a quite essential southern state and, at the same time, an unsouthern southern state. Let me mention a few of the southern aspects first. The largest social class in the South before the Civil War, and for several decades after it too, was made up of yeoman farmers—men and women who owned their modest acreage and worked hard to make their livelihoods from it. North Carolina, with relatively few great plantations, was the special home of the small farmers. The individualism and self-reliance that once characterized so much of agrarian America lasted long in North Carolina—and has not, in fact, completely disappeared to this day.

On the other hand, the Tar Heel state has never fully conformed to certain historic southern norms. There has always been an attractive element of othermindedness about North Carolina. There have been, for example, more dissenters and exceptions-to-the-rule in North Carolina than in either of her neighboring states, Virginia and South Carolina.

Perhaps that other-mindedness furnishes a clue as to why the trustees of struggling little Trinity College, our institutional forebear, picked an audacious, innovative Yankee, John F. Crowell, to become president in 1887. That was a time when so much of the South was still mired in bitter memories of the Civil War and sectional defensiveness, yet Trinity dared to be different.

Trinity, in fact, aspired to excellence. Now, aspirations toward excellence are not uncommon among educational institutions. Practically all of them mouth the words, sooner or later. To dream of excellence and to begin to have the money to pay the inevitable costs of it, however, was an experience known to precious few colleges in the poverty-stricken South of eighty or so years ago.

President Crowell and the newfangled, young Ph.D.s he had to recruit for the faculty when Trinity moved to Durham in 1892 not only dreamed of excellence. They found patrons in Washington Duke and his son, Benjamin N. Duke, who gradually began to pay the bills for it. The momentum of the college increased around the turn of the century. The Dukes, rich Republicans in what was then a veritable sea of southern Democrats, preferred a broad national outlook to a sullen sectional one. North Carolina could tolerate such an institution as Trinity even if many in the state did not exactly love it, and many, especially Methodists, did love and try to support it. Money from the Duke family allowed Trinity College to enjoy an independence and critical stance that few other southern educational establishments in the first decades of this century could match.

When James B. Duke, Washington Duke's youngest son, prepared to underwrite the organization of a university around Trinity in 1924, the college was ready. An interesting college with a distinctive style and history became, rather gracefully and naturally, a university that still strives toward excellence—and still struggles to pay the mounting costs of it.

So Duke University, like North Carolina, is both southern and unsouthern. On the wooded edge of a medium-sized industrial city, Duke is also on the edge of its own forest of some eight thousand acres. As a faculty member myself, I must leave it to others to speak about that component of today's university. But I will arbitrarily select a few of Duke's continuing, special attractions for me. As universities go, we are, thank God, still small, and all the evidence suggests that we will remain so. We have a cosmopolitan student body with whom, most of the time at least, it is both pleasant and challenging to engage in the learning process. Duke has one of the finest libraries in the country, not just in terms of the size of its holdings and the handsomeness of its facilities but in the friendly helpfulness of its dedicated staff. Five minutes from my office on West Campus, I can be in Sarah P. Duke Gardens and the peaceful woods around them—and I go there on most working days, in fact on the way to work. From different spots in those gardens, one can see the Gothic Towers of West Campus. The stone is warmly colored and from a nearby hillside; as Woodrow Wilson put it, we have put "those lines in our architecture which point every man's imagination to historic traditions of learning in the English-speaking race." For those reasons as well as the sheer beauty of the buildings, I enjoy living with the Tudor-Gothic style of West. On East Campus, where I liked being officed for more than twenty years in one of the too few buildings that remain from Trinity days, both the spacious grounds with their magnificent trees and the red-brick Georgian architecture are balms for anyone who will take the time to note his or her surroundings.

Trinity and Duke were here long before any of us now in residence came on the scene. They will be here long hence. That fact, in itself, is one of the enduring satisfactions to be derived from being a part of an institution like Duke.

By Robert F. Durden
History Professor

Everything you always wanted to know about Duke . . .

Now that you are a true Blue Devil you will be besieged in your first few weeks by a number of acronyms, terms and phrases that you may have never heard before. You were smart enough to get into Duke, so you will probably figure them out soon enough. But here is a "cheat sheet" just in case.

ADVICE—Your academic adviser will give it by appointment only. Your R.A. will give it in the dorm. Upperclassmen will give it over pizza in the Rathskeller. Weigh it all carefully—some sources are better than others.

AFTER YOU GRADUATE, (as in "What are you going to do after you graduate?")—A question that may be asked freely of freshmen and sophomores, hinted at with juniors and never, ever, to be asked of seniors, especially as graduation approaches.

ASDU—Associated Students of Duke University, the official student government. ASDU has two bodies: a legislature composed of one representative per 100 students, elected through dormitories, and the executive committee, composed of representatives chosen by the students in general election and executive appointed by the president. When working properly, the body makes policy recommendations to the administration and chooses all student members on university committees.

AWESOME—Most overused word on campus. Come prepared for an awesome time at Duke.

BASKETBALL—THE sport at Duke. It's also the main topic of conversation from November through March.

BEACH—Where students escape to in the spring. Fort Lauderdale is the place to go for spring break; Myrtle Beach, S.C. is the post-exams/-pregraduation retreat.

BENCHES—Located in front of East and West campus dorms. See SCOPING.

BRIDGE—A Duke landmark. The buses pass underneath them and the graffiti on them changes daily.

BRYAN UNIVERSITY CENTER—The last 10 classes have been promised one; yours will be the third freshman class to use it.

BUSES—What take you from East to West and vice versa, what get incredibly crowded between classes, and what invariably don't run when it's raining and you're late.

CAMBRIDGE INN—Called the C.I., the Cambridge Inn is the West Campus hot spot, featuring strong coffee, beer on tap, frozen yogurt and junk food munchies.

CAR—If you don't have one, become friendly with someone who does. A car is important for all-campus or out-of-town sanity-saving trips.

CENTRAL CAMPUS—Apartments located in between East and West campus. Houses grad students as well as undergraduates. Great place to get a home-cooked meal away from home!

CHAPEL HILL—Where some of the best restaurants and bars in the area are located. A 20-minute drive. Also the home of another North Carolina university, but not THE university of North Carolina.

CHRONICLE—Duke's five-day-a-week newspaper that includes a weekly magazine called Voices. The crossword puzzle is a lunchtime addition. Editors are elected by the staff; anyone can write.

CLUSTERS—Where freshmen will find themselves living. There are three, each made up of several dorms.

CRIPS—Easy courses. Upperclassmen will gladly share their lists of crips, but professors have been known to change the requirements. The most famous nicknames: "Rocks for Jocks," "Stars," "Guns and Boats."

DOWN UNDER—Located underneath Gilbert-Addoms dormitory, the D.U. is famous for peanut butter milkshakes and popcorn. Check out the live bands on Saturday nights.

DROP/ADD—The world's longest line. Held the second day of class each semester from 4 to 6 p.m. If you get a permission note from the professor of the course you want to "add," you guarantee admission and avoid the long line.

DURHAM—Really, it's not a bad place. Getting to know it may be one of the nicest things you can do.

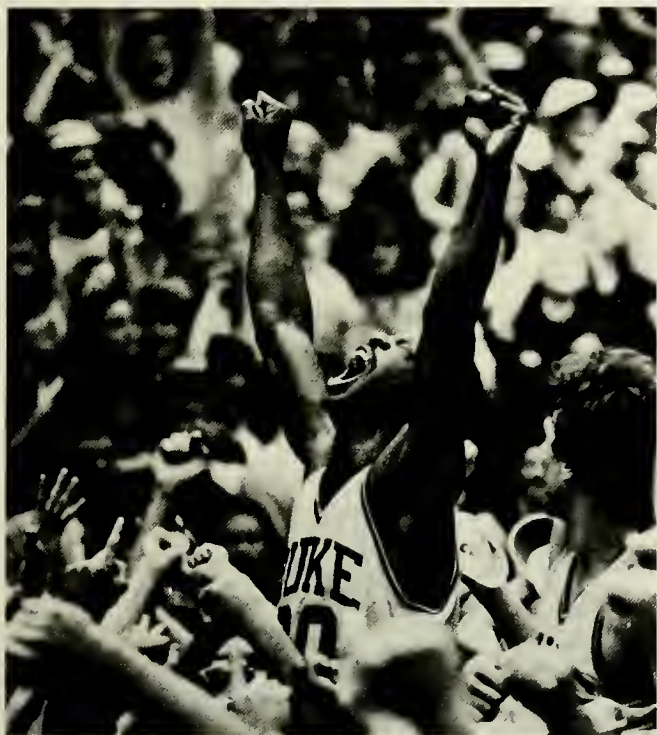

EGG DROP—An event which often draws a lot of attention during Oktoberfest, the campus fall festival. The objective is to drop an egg off a building in a device which prevents breakage. Always eggciting. See ENGINEERING.

ENGINEERING—A major for some 200 members of your class. Contrary to popular belief, not all engineers wear calculators on their belts or converse only with computers.

FOOD—One of students' favorite gripes; you decide. See PITS.

FRESHMAN 15—Average number of pounds gained by Duke newcomers on acquaintance with campus food.

GARDENS—The best on-campus escape. Just a few steps from main quad, the Sarah P. Duke Gardens have lots of nooks, crannies and open spaces for playing, studying or pondering the meaning of life.

GOTHIC BOOKSTORE—The best place on campus to kill time. Located in Bryan University Center the bookstore has a wide range of enjoyable reading; what it doesn't have the salespeople will order for you.

GRADELI'S—Trent Drive Hall's sub sandwich/ice cream sundae haven.

GRADES—Not worth worrying about as much as you may think. To keep in mind: Mid-term grades are usually lower than final grades, and your grades tend to get higher as you get older.

GREEKS—Fifty percent of the undergraduate men and 30 percent of the undergraduate women. Mother's advice: Try rush and then decide what is best for you.

HIGH SCHOOL AND OTHER DATA FROM YOUR PAST—Who you were or what you did in high school, along with your SAT scores, schools you turned down, etc., should be discussed only with other members of your class only freshman year. No offense, but after that, no one cares.

HIDEAWAY BAR—The late-night hangout that has beer on tap, a television, video games, and a pool table. Hidden away under the Pits, if you can find it.

INDEPENDENTS—Those who aren't greeks. Come in all shapes, sizes, degrees of beauty and intelligence.

INTRAMURALS—Athletics for non-athletes. A number of sports are played year-round. The PE department has information.

JAMES BUCHANAN DUKE—The man who watches over West Campus. This statuesque figure sports different costumes on different occasions.

JUDICIAL BOARD—A student-faculty board that tries cases ranging from academic dishonesty to assault.

... but didn't know who to ask.

LIQUOR—In North Carolina, you must be 21 to buy it. Beer and wine for the rest of you (18 or older).

LIBRARY—Perkins has more than 3 million books, but it seems like the one you need is always checked out. It's also a campus hot-spot on Sunday nights. See SOCIAL LIFE.

MEDICAL CENTER—One of the biggest and best in the country, this 1,000+ room facility is best known to undergraduates as the shortest way to get from Trent and Hanes to West Campus.

MOUNTAINS—The fall break escape. The Blue Ridge mountains are perfect for camping, particularly on "leaf" or "peak" weekend, the second or third weekend in October when the changing leaves are the most beautiful.

NERDS—Persons who live in the library, or wish they could!

NORTH CAROLINA PUBLIC INTEREST RESEARCH GROUP—NC-PIRG, considered by some as the most liberal group on campus, fights against nuclear power and the draft, for women's rights and consumer interests. Part of each student's activity fee goes to them each semester. The PIRG fee will be refunded on certain days each semester to people who disagree with their causes.

O.C.—Off-campus, usually used to refer to the 20 to 30 percent of the student body who do not live on the East or West. An O.C. is also another name for an off-campus party.

PARKER'S—Duke favorite for southern cooking, barbecue and hushpuppies. Must be experienced before graduating!

PIZZA DEVIL—On-campus pizza delivery service. Great way to spend extra points or curb the midnight munchies. See FRESHMAN 15. It's a major contributor!

Terry Sanford
President

H. Keith H. Brodie, M.D.
Chancellor

PITS—The loving nickname for the Blue and White Room, the main dining hall.

POINTS—Units of exchange for the campus-wide board plan. Points are worth 5¢ each and aren't good for buying beer, but are your ticket to luxurious dining everywhere.

PRE—As in pre-med, pre-law or pre-business. More than half of each freshman class plans to be one of the first two. Those who are not one of these three and are not engineers or computer science majors are pre-poverty.

PREPPIE—Button-down collars, polos, L.L. Bean shoes, khakis, Fair Isle sweaters and blindingly bright colors.

PROFESSORS—Call them Dr. or Professor So and So. Assistant professors do not have tenure; associate and full professors do.

QUARRY—Favorite tanning spot for Dukies. Located 20 minutes from campus. See CAR.

QUIET—A phenomenon found occasionally on East even less on West.

William J. Griffith
Vice President for Student Affairs

Ernestine Friedl
Dean of Trinity College and
Arts and Sciences

Richard L. Cox
Dean for Residential Life

Suzanne J. Wasiolek
Dean for Student Life

RAIN—A lot falls on Duke. Count on getting wet at least once a week and on wearing out or losing one umbrella per year.

RATHSKELLER—Called the rat. The alternative to the C.I. features hot nachos, a favorite Duke munchie.

SANFORD—President Sanford to his face, Uncle Terry to your friends, Sanford is a former North Carolina governor who has been Duke's president for 12 years.

SCOPING—The main term for scrutinizing a member of the opposite sex. See SOCIAL LIFE.

SHAGGING/BEACH MUSIC (for you Yankees): The most popular form of dance at Duke. You'll have to experience it . . .

SOCIAL LIFE—Ranges from large parties to small gatherings among friends. The social life at Duke is what you make it.

STUDENT HEALTH—Not bad for basic colds and flus. Also included in your health fee are the services at Counseling and Psychological Services. CAPS offers career, group and individual counseling, and all services are confidential.

UNIVERSITY ADMINISTRATION—Otherwise known as the Allen Building Gang. You will probably have to deal with one or more of them during your stay at Duke. The gang includes: H. Keith Brodie, chancellor (second in command to Uncle Terry), responsible for overseeing all university activities and functions; Ernestine Friedl, dean of arts and sciences; William Griffith, vice president for student affairs; Clark Cahow, registrar; Caroline Lattimore, dean of minority affairs; Ruby L. Wilson, dean of the School of Nursing; George W. Pearsall, dean of the School of Engineering.

UNIVERSITY UNION—Sponsors Major Speakers, Special Events, Freewater Films, Performing Arts, Cable Television, Major Attractions, etc. Anyone can work for them.

VARSITY SPORTS—Men's basketball may be king, but a number of non-revenue sports worth watching. Check out gymnastics, volleyball, field hockey, swimming or track for starters.

WALL—Legend has it that the wall around East Campus is really 10 feet high, with six feet buried underground to get around James Duke's stipulation that a 10-foot wall be built to protect the women on East.

WARM WEATHER—Why some people come to Duke. Wait 'til winter!

WASHINGTON DUKE—Rumor says that if a virgin walks in front of this seated man on East Campus, he will stand up and salute.

XEROX—A machine you will learn to love. Start collecting nickels now.

YEARBOOK AND OTHER PUBLICATIONS—The Chanticleer is Duke's sometimes non-traditional yearbook. Other publications include a literary and photographic magazine, a humor magazine, a general magazine and the Teacher-Course Evaluation Book.

ZZZZs—The fine art of studying the inside of one's eyelids. Practiced extensively in Perkins during exams. A student can never get enough of this.

Our thanks to Roseann Viscomi '83 and Sue Wolfe '86 for updating the glossary.

BLUE AND WHITE

By George E. Leftwich

*Duke, we thy anthems raise
For all thy praises untold;
We sing for the Blue and White
Whose colors we uphold.
Firm stands our line of blue
For we are loyal through and through,
Fighting with the spirit true
All for the love of old D.U.*

*Fight! We'll fight!
With all our strength and might;
Win we can
So here we give a hand;
Hey!
Rah! Rah! Rah! Rah!
D-u-k-e, Rah!*

FIGHT BLUE DEVILS

*Fight, fight Blue Devils,
Fight for Duke and the Blue and White,
March on through
For the touchdown's there for you
Go get 'em
Duke is out to win today
Carolina good night
So turn on the steam team
Fight Blue Devils fight.*

Duke University School Songs

DEAR OLD DUKE

By Robert H. James '24

*Dear old Duke, thy name we sing,
To thee our voices raise, we'll raise,
To thee our anthems ring in everlasting praise
And tho' on life's broad sea
Our fates may far us bear
We'll ever turn to thee
Our Alma Mater dear.*

STAND UP FOR DUKE

By Dan Levine

*Stand up for Duke, Come on and be true blue.
Get behind us all the way.
Stand up for Duke, Your team is counting on you.
Now it's always exciting.
What a thrill, Come on out and be a part of the action.
Hey, Hey, Hey, everyone, Come and stand up for Duke,
And be true blue!*

*Stand up for Duke, Come on and be true blue.
Get behind us all the way.
Stand up for Duke, Your team is counting on you.
Now it's always exciting.
What a thrill, Come on out and be a part of the action.
Be a part of the fun, And be true blue.
Stand up for Duke. Stand up for Duke!*
